

Paper Title

Name Surname (there can be multiple names)

Affiliation (faculty, university)

Address

e-mail address

Supervisor: indicate the name(s) of your supervisor(s)

Abstract

Write the abstract here. This template should be used for all PESW submissions. Be sure to use the styles pre-defined in this template.

Keywords— component, formatting, style, styling

I. INTRODUCTION

This is how we write sections.

A. Subsection

This is how we write subsections.

II. SOME PRE-DEFINED STYLES

A. Equations

Equations should be typed like this:

$$a + b = \gamma \tag{1}$$

B. Tables

Tables should be formatted like this:

TABLE I
TABLE TYPE STYLES

Table Head	Table Column Head
	Table column subhead	Subhead	Subhead
copy	More table copy <sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup>Sample of a Table footnote.

C. Figures

Figures should be formatted like this:

Fig. 1. Example of a figure caption.

III. IMPORTANT REMARKS

Be so kind and comply with this template. Especially, be so kind and:

- Do not use page numbering and footnotes
- Do not modify the A4 format, including the page borders

IV. PAGE LIMITS

The page limits are as follows:

- Full-papers: up to 10 pages
- Abstracts: up to 4 pages
- Student posters: up to 2 pages

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

You may write the acknowledgment here.

PAPER ORIGIN

In the case this paper (or its part) has been published somewhere else, this section is mandatory Indicate the original source here, please.

REFERENCES

- [1] M. Young, The Technical Writer's Handbook. Mill Valley, CA: University Science, 1989.
[2] ...